Adobe Releases Security Patch Updates for February 2019

Dear Constituents,

Adobe has released its monthly security updates to address a total of 75 security vulnerabilities across its various products, 71 of which resides in Adobe Acrobat and Reader alone.

February 2019 patch Tuesday updates address several critical and important vulnerabilities in Adobe Acrobat Reader DC, Adobe Coldfusion, Creative Cloud Desktop Application, and Adobe Flash Player for Windows, macOS, Linux, and Chrome OS.

What to do

Users of the affected Adobe software and apps for Windows and macOS systems are highly recommended to update their software packages to the latest versions as soon as possible.
